Stephanie Tillotson is an associate who practices primarily with the firm's medical professional liability defense group.

Stephanie graduated summa cum laude with highest honors from the University of Maine in Orono in 2022, where she majored in Spanish, played alto sax in the UMaine marching band, and earned highest honors for her Honors Thesis on the accessibility of bilingual education for native U.S. English speakers.

Stephanie graduated cum laude from the University of Maine School of Law in 2026 and was selected as the recipient for the International Law award. During law school, Stephanie completed a summer internship with the U.S. Navy JAG Corps at the Naval Justice School in Newport, Rhode Island, as well as worked with asylum seekers and ICE detainees through Maine Law's Refugee and Human Rights Clinic as both a student attorney and Spanish interpreter. In her last semester, Stephanie externed with the Honorable Kermit V. Lipez of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

Stephanie's law review article, "Where America's Day Begins": Guam and a Future of Free Association, was recently published in the 33rd volume of UC Berkeley's Asian American Law Journal.

Stephanie has spent most of her life in Maine and currently lives in Cumberland Foreside with her husband, Aiden.
